

Experience Gliding

This is the world's fastest sport without engines and with no carbon footprint.

The glider pilot is continually seeking rising air. As long as the glider is moving through air that is rising faster than its rate of sink through it, the glider will maintain or gain height and prolonged soaring flights will be possible

The Gliding Federation of Australia
Web: www.glidingaustralia.org