AIRWORTHINESS ADVICE NOTICE

GFA/AN 43 BRASOV 1

SUBJECT: Service life of IS 28B2 gliders

Following considerable negotiation, advice has been received that the Manufacturer has provisionally extended the fatigue life of the IS 28B2 glider to 8000 hours. The necessary documentation to substantiate this extension is expected shortly from the factory.

In the meantime the Department of Transport has endorsed an interim life of 5000 hours for IS 28B2 gliders pending the receipt of the above mentioned substantiating data.
